

Empowering Women's Climate Resilience Workshop

Day 4: Research Team Competition — Detailed Program

 June 11, 2025 |  10:00 AM – 3:00 PM |  Virtual (MS Teams)

◆ 10:00 – 10:10 AM

Opening Remarks

- Welcome and overview of the day's format
- Reiterate judging criteria and competition guidelines
- Introduce the judging panel

 Speakers: Organising team and brief judge intros

◆ 10:10 AM – 12:30 PM

Team Presentations

Each team presents their research solution:

- 10-minute presentation
- 5 minutes Q&A with judges

Content to cover:

- Problem and context
- Innovation and methodology
- Stakeholder engagement
- Gender/climate impact
- Feasibility and future potential

 Presentations via shared screen (PowerPoint)

◆ 12:30 – 1:30 PM

Lunch Break & Judge Deliberation

- Judges enter a private breakout to finalise scoring

◆ 1:30 – 2:00 PM

Feedback Sessions

- Judges meet each team in private or semi-private rooms
- Offer constructive feedback (strengths + areas to improve)

◆ 2:00 – 2:30 PM

Awards Ceremony

- His Majesty's Ambassador to Morocco, Mr Simon Martin
- Dean of Cardiff School of Technologies (CST), Cardiff Met, UK, Prof Jon Platts
- Head of the College of Computing, UM6P, Morocco, Mr Ali Kettani
- Associate Dean Partnerships, CST, Cardiff Met, UK, Dr Catherine Tryfona
- Professor, College of Computing, UM6P, Morocco, Prof Youssef Iraqi
- Announce the winners (4 projects, £2,500 each)
- Highlight exceptional projects
- Celebrate all teams' contributions

◆ 2:30 – 3:00 PM

Closing Reflections & Next Steps

- Closing Remarks
- Key takeaways from mentors and organisers
- Outline the post-workshop timeline (reporting, dissemination, scaling opportunities)
- Encourage teams to stay connected via ECR networks and future funding routes